FRIDAY, FEB. 7, 1890.

It is a trite axiom that those who live soberly and simply enjoy longer leaves of life than those who are drawn into the vortex of modern worry and luxury. But it is not always easy to produce facts to prove this eminently reasonable contention.
Some statistics recently produced in England supply convincing evidence that the individual who is moderate in thought, word and deed lives longer than one who does not follow the via media. The Quakers are noted for the simplicity of their habits, and last year the number of persons belonging to the Society of Friends, who died in Great Britain, was 266. Of these 124, nearly half, were over 70 years of age and 65 of them, one-fourth of the whole number, were above 80. These figures need no comment.

Mr. Butterworth, of Ohio, addressing the congressional committee in favor of his Commercial Union Bill (he calls it unrestricted reciprocity for short), said: "He did not appeal to politics but to that statesmanship which would give to our people an opportunity to have the benefit of the broad domain north of the St.
Lawrence. Canada would be assimilated (he did not use the word 'annexed,' as it might be unpleasant to some people). It was so written in the book of destiny. The people of Canada were our kith and kin, and a very good assortment, too. 'The highway to assimilation was closer commercial relations, because where a man's treasure was there would be his heart also.' Precisely. All these gentlemen go about their task in different ways, but their end is the same.

Few people appreciate the value of a file of newspapers. To preserve a chronicle of contemporary events is at once of so much utility and interest that the wonder is that more people do not undertake it.
Where public libraries are accessible the keeping of a newspaper file is, of course, unnecessary, but possession of the former issues of some one newspaper in permanent form is often found very convenient. The newspaper files at the British Museum are no insignificant part of the literary treasures in the temple of knowledge, and for nearly two years the work of arranging and numbering the volumes has been going on so as to make them more easily accessible. In 1847 but 300 newspapers were received at the museum, in 1887 the number was 1,200.

Furthermore, complete files of most of the British papers for over 100 years are to be found there.

The United States made, last year, 8,517,068 net tons, or more than 7,600,000 gross tons of pig iron.
This is an increase of 1,250,000 over the output of 1888, and is two and a half times greater than the output of 1879. We do not know what the production in Great Britain was last year; but in 1888 it was 7,900,000 tons, so that the mother country still leads the world. But, under the fostering care of protection, the United States is becoming a very close second. And in the production of steel, including all grades, the United States is indisputably first. The policy of protection has never had such a vindication as that given by the industry of the United States. Not only have tens of thousands of men found employment at it, but tens of thousands more have indirectly received employment from it in mining coal and in carrying ores and finished iron; while tens of thousands of farmers have found home markets for products which under free trade they would not have been able to sell. Not only has protection brought about a growth of production unprecedented in industrial history; it has brought prices down to the level prevailing in England.

CITIZEN'S BALL.

The citizen's ball at the Barracks on Friday evening last, was a great success.

There was not as big an assembly present as on former occasions, but those who were there enjoyed themselves immensely. The reason why the ball was held so soon after the police ball was on account of tent coming in last week and the decorations at the barracks were to be left up for a couple of weeks if the citizens wished to have their ball within that time. The supper was a grand affair, and the committee deserve great credit for carrying the ball so successfully through. A large number of our citizens are confined to their homes through illness, and could not attend, and a great many are out on business and attending the bazaar at Winnipeg. The committee who had control of the ball were Messrs. S. J. Donaldson, Wm. Davis, Alex. Stewart, E. J. Cann, and Agnew, G. C. McLeod, J. McKay and L. J. Clarke.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Are you disturbed at night and broken in your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? It is so, send at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP FOR CHILDREN TEETHING is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the U.S., and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25c. a bottle.

The first numbers of Winnipeg's new daily, the Tribune, are to hand. It is a well put together and newsy sheet, something after the style of the late Sun, and is up to the general standard of that paper. The new paper is under the general management of R. L. Richardson, late of the Sun, with D. L. McIntyre, formerly connected with the business department of the Free Press, and more recently with the Port Arthur Sentinel, as business manager. J. Moneriet, of the Sun, as city editor. We welcome the Tribune and wish it prosperity.

SKIPPING A RINK.

This is the goal of the curler's ambition, but they who aspire to the office should remember that it is not only good play that is required in a skip, but certain excellence of character, that are too rare among those who are elected to the position. The pillars of the Post are "rivalry" and "good friendship." A skip has therefore to do his best to win, but he has to keep his men in good humor and cultivate brotherly feelings towards his opponents. A man who begins to scold when one of his players plays badly, who gets down in the mouth when he loses a big end, and is always inclined to quarrel with his opponent, is totally unfit to skip a rink, and should at once be deposed. If anything is excusable, it is to make a player believe he is doing fine when he is playing badly; this will do more good than calling him bad names. The glory of curling has ever been that nothing vile, or low, or ungentlemanly has a place in the game; there is a tone about it of the best kind; and when this is remembered it will be seen how careful clubs should be in selecting skips, and how much rests with the skip to preserve the honor of the noble game. There are quiet skips, and skips that make a mighty noise as if the epithet roaring, as applied to the game, were connected with lung power; and some we have seen who danced and leaped into the air like savages at each successful shot. We prefer the quiet skip, though excessive silence is not commendable. And we prefer quiet play. Curling is not a game of strength, it is a game of science, and when we see a skip cultivating the "striking" game we look on it as a sign of weakness. Would that the skips and curlers would often bear in mind that the stone that passes the ice is seldom of much value, and that even when a stone has to be removed, the ice-length shot is generally more effectual than the raging one. Commend us, therefore, to the skip who plays the quiet game, and who is worthy by his character to maintain the reputation of curling, as the fosterer of good fellowship and the friend of all that is good and noble in human character.—Selected.

SEEDS.

New Oats, new Wheats, new Potatoes, new Plants and Balbs, are offered in the 1890 Catalogue of The Steele Bros. Co., Toronto. No need to send to the U.S. for seeds when such a work is issued here, for it beats them all. It is the largest, the handsomest, the most modern and fullest in matter and illustrations of any we have yet seen. Canadians should be proud of a firm of such enterprise, energy and high standing. They offer the Banner oats, that yielded 95 bush. per acre in York county; nine new varieties of potatoes; new clovers for the North West, &c., &c. The catalogue is priced at 20c., which may be deducted from first order sent in, or they will send 1lb. of Banner oats by mail prepaid, or 5 packets of vegetable or flower seeds and catalogue included for a remittance of 25c. It will pay every amateur gardener, florist and farmer to send for it.

ARMADALE.

Influenza has reached Sandy Lake and appears to be raging in a rather wild form.

Roads are frightful bad in this district, and we are unable to keep a trail open to Carlton.

The I. D. grist mill has been running two weeks, and is doing splendid work. The Indians seem highly pleased at having a mill, and intend farming more extensively, than heretofore this season.

On Sunday last, a larger congregation than usual attended Service at the Armadale mission Presbyterian Church. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. McKay, and Mr. Seymour of Sandy Lake, officiated at the organ.

Messrs. J. Dreaver and R. Ishister, intend running their threshing machine again in a few days.
